Property Description

A great boutique hotel located in downtown Quepos close to the new Marina. The main structure have 3 rooms plus owners suite and a little room for guests or drivers. The restaurant has seating right now for 24 guests. The second building is 2 stories each one having 6 rooms each for a total of 12 rooms. Some rooms have 2 single beds and other have 1 single bed and 1 double beds, all have cable TV, phone, private bathroom and A/C. The pool area is located in the center of the hotel which is large and has a relaxing waterfall that overlooks the surrounding Jungle. The hotel has a great location and is a great place to stay for the sports fishing community or tourists looking to visit Manuel Antonio National Park. This hotel is a great opportunity for any investor or family looking to make a change and come down to Costa Rica to invest in the area while working and managing a profitable hotel.
