Property Description

Casa Aracari is a beautifully crafted home with 2 oversized bedrooms and 2.5 bath that sits surrounded by nature. The open feel and big decks that surround the home give an outdoor indoor living feel. Along with the beautiful mountain views comes the great breezes leaving you no other choice than to want to keep the home's huge sliding glass doors always open. The mountains and inviting gardens host numerous types of birds and wildlife making the setting your own private sanctuary. Casa Aracari is only minutes to Quepos and all major Banks and shopping also minutes from the Quepos Airport and Local Hospital. The 4,000 sq ft home greets you with a beautifully designed entrance where you cross a platform over water to the main entrance to the home. As you walk past the weeping wall to one side and HUGE mountain views to the other you immediately feel transported to your own paradise. The front door opens to a giant great room with vaulted ceilings made of wood, here you have the modern kitchen overlooking the dining room and living room which extends into outdoor patios overlooking the lush gardens and mountain range drop back.
