Property Description

Looking for an alternative to the beach? Looking for privacy and a chance to experience the real Costa Rica? Looking for an abundant supply of fresh cool water from a natural mountain spring? Here is a great property for someone looking to get away from it all and live in the beautiful mountains of Costa Rica. With a fresh cool climate year round, this finca is just 25 kilometers (15 miles) on all-weather roads from Liberia and only 15 kilometers (9 miles) on paved roads from the quaint mountain town of Guayabo. No need for A/C and no need for heat. Humidity levels are much lower than can be found around the Lake Arenal area. Grow your own vegetables and fruits; catch tilapia from your own pond; enjoy your own farm fresh eggs; get fresh milk and beef/pork from your friendly Costa Rican neighbors. This finca is perfect for the adventurous pioneering spirit in many of us. Those adventurous types who love the outdoors and love all those activities – horses, mountain bikes, hiking, self-sustaining farming - will love this farm.
