Property Description

This Hotel is conveniently located on the main road half way between the Port of Quepos and Manuel Antonio National Park, the most famous wild life reserve and beach destination area in Costa Rica. It offers a secluded setting within the jungle, far away from traffic noise and city hustle/bustle. The beach is nearby and your visitors will enjoy the many birds, monkeys and sloths. The Hotel offers eleven luxurious units, three beautifully decorated/spacious suites, and two new tropical hideaways. All units have a private balcony, air conditioning and cable TV. Each unit at the Hotel is decorated with imported tile and beautiful Costa Rican wood which serves to accent the elegance of every room. No expense has been spared on the final touches of the hotel's decor. All rooms have been renovated with new mattresses and air conditioning units. There is a separate "owners" house with two apartments on the premises.
