Property Description

This naturally beautiful setting provides life style choices ranging from country casual to estate living. It is rare to find a 17 acre parcel of land that is 100% usable and offers such an ideal building site. A low density development is also a possibility. Over $100,000 has been invested in infrastructure improvements including a stone and teak perimeter fence, retaining walls, a reserve water tank and underground utilities servicing the property. Finca Las Brisas is located only 15 minutes from Playa Tamarindo and Playa Avellenas and less than an hour from Liberia International Airport.
