Property Description

This beautiful house is a country house in the city. This beautiful house has so many details and amenities, which give it character, that we cannot mention them all. The house is almost entirely established on one floor. On one side of the house you will find three secondary bedrooms; two of them with walk-in closets and share a full bathroom. The other bedroom is a full suite with bathroom and walk-in closet which may very well be another master bedroom. There is also an office/studio. Then in the center of the house, on the same level, you will find a large double main living room, a foyer, the guest bathroom and a loft built in solid wood that could be a library or second office. Then there is the kitchen, which has plenty of wooden cabinets, a pantry and a large black granite counter top. Just off the kitchen there is a family room. There is a large and another half bathroom. The terrace is connected to the large garden.
