Property Description

Enjoy your vacation in a villa that has one of the best locations and ocean views in Playas Del Coco, a full service seaside community. Villa Laguna Vista is nestled into a tranquil residential and private community setting on the tropical hillsides of North Coco in a small gated community of private villas that has a community swimming pool shared by the residents of four villas. This location offers not only great ocean views, but it is close to the beach and to town with all the conveniences of Coco. The villa and community offer something for everyone. Some guests may lounge by the pool or walk to the beach while others go to town and enjoy the many restaurants, colorful bars, stores and local artisan shops. At the end of the day all guests can get together to relax and bask in the unforgettable sunsets in the comfort of the spacious living room. Varietal dining is available to meet everyone's taste along with the later evening night life of Playas Del Coco.
