Property Description

Check out this beautiful rainforest retreat, complete with the sights and sounds of a natural Costa Rican setting on a 2 acre land parcel. Listen to the sights and sounds of two creeks as they flow on either side of the property and intersect below a rainforest platform deck located behind the home. You and your guests can also enjoy unforgettable nature hikes leading to a majestic waterfall while witnessing exotic wildlife and colorful flora along the way. This spacious residence originally functioned as a Bed and Breakfast and now serves as a private personal home. Located in the upscale Escaleras community near Dominical, this property can function excellently as an income producing hospitality business or remain as a private getaway for a buyer seeking a unique home with a highly desirable location. This offering is turnkey ready with all furnishings and appliances included in the asking price.
