Property Description

Southern Backcountry Gem! Located near Diamante Waterfall between Dominical and San Isidro. A five minute ride on a bumpy road brings you to iron gates with cornerstones that are topped with "pineapples". This is truly a private haven that overflows with nature, everything from exotic birds to monkeys. The property is comprised of three separate parcels of land totaling 4.82 hectares (11.9 acres) that is surrounded by water called Quebradas or running streams. The length of the properties faces the Diamante Waterfalls and the terrain is overflowing with many different types of fruit and other edibles. There is a virgin rainforest at the top of the property that is backed by a preserve. There is ample room on each of the three parcels to build additional homes. The structures on the property consist of a main house, a guest/rental house, a barn, poultry housings and pig pens. The Main House has a large Master Suite with air conditioning, a second bedroom with air conditioning, pantry/laundry room, a total of three bathrooms, large cathedral great room consisting of a spacious kitchen and living room.
