Property Description

This 2 Bedroom, 2 Bath house overlooks the Ojochal Valley and to the mountains above the developed areas of Ojochal. A well constructed and maintained home and pool with views to the ocean, Isla Cano and the Osa Peninsula. It is a comfortable move in and enjoy while making plans to utilize the larger site ready for building. As you can see in the photos, the larger building site could easily accommodate a 5,000 square foot home on one level. The 3 acre site borders on over 50 acres of private preserve land of the same owner. A purchase of this preserve land could be contemplated or the seller is open to a method of assuring the protection of that land. The home and other building site sit well above the public road with the land and topography to each side providing protection from any infringement on the ambiance of the sites and views. If you are looking for an exclusive compound or family estate, this property has the potential.
