Property Description

Location and views. That's what this condo offers. Located in central Manuel Antonio within walking distance of countless restaurants, hotels, shops, casinos, banks, and spas, this condo offers proximity to all of the amenities one could want. The views speak for themselves-- huge open ocean views, the entire Manuel Antonio bay, national park, cathedral point, and numerous islands, all flanked by the verdant green rainforest for which the area is known. Furthermore, this unit is undoubtedly the nicest in the entire complex for a number of reasons. Located on the street level (which is also the upper level of the complex, and therefore has the best views), it has easy walking access, without having to go up or down a bunch of stairs. Also, it is the most removed from the road, which means less road noise. The condo is in fact two levels, each of which is independent from the other, including its access.
