Property Description

This house is a charming 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom with great mountain and ocean view located in the hills above Matapalo and magnificent sunsets.. This house sits on 2.5 acres gently slopes down the back of the property until it reaches the creek.. It is a easy walk down as you pass the fruit trees and the hardwoods that were planted about 15 years ago. When get to the flat area there are 2 tilapia ponds by the river. It is so beautiful and quite down there perfect for relaxing.. That flat area would be perfect to add more cabins or just leave it as an area for recreation.The house was built with a mix of concrete and wood and there is also a small guest cabin on the property that could be rented or just used for visitors.. There is a shop where the owners makes custom wooden furniture.. The property is located 10 minutes from the main paved highway in Matapalo and about 20 minutes to the regional airport in Quepos and another 5 minutes to the new marina.
