Property Description

La Sirena Hotel Iconic Property for Sale An iconic hotel property located in the Pacific town of Quepos is now for sale, and according to local experts, is priced to sell quickly. The Sirena Hotel, a local institution and host to some of the most famous anglers from around the world is located just steps from the brand new Marina Pez Vela. Its location close to the fishing and diving operations and their boats has made it the hotel of choice for many years for the serious anglers that come to experience the world class opportunities found just offshore. Considered an oasis in the growing Pacific town of Quepos, the Sirena has its own swimming pool and small patio bar and is the "hideout" of choice for those looking to escape the high priced "hotels" of adjoining Manuel Antonio or need to find a cheap taxi at the time when they to the marina. The Sirena boasts 14 quaint rooms with air conditioning, cable television, mini-bar, and are decorated by award winning BBC photographs of Costa Rica wildlife.
