Property Description

New greatly reduced price - super deal in choice expat location! The quaint mountain home near San Isidro with balcony overlooking the river is artistically appointed, with fine ceramic floors and counters and touches of stained glass windows throughout. The home is being offered completely furnished, including a new stove, refrigerator, and built-in cedar cabinets and closets throughout. It is surrounded by colorful bougainvilleas, orchids, and bromilias and is located in the popular and tranquil Quebradas section, where people truly care for the environment and are as friendly as you will find in Costa Rica. There are three convenient stores within walking distance. The bus costs only a few cents and in only 15 minutes you are in downtown San Isidro de El General, a beautiful, large mountain town. San Isidro features an abundance of supermarkets, doctors, hospitals, hardware stores, small shops, the largest regional farmer's market, and more.
