Property Description

Are you looking to invest in a piece of property to build your home or business while enjoying the Eco-lifestyle Costa Rica has to offer? Then look no further. These lots are located within walking distance from the Marino Ballena National Park may be a perfect fit for your search! . The property is situated near schools and shops that are accompanied by a good transport network meant to connect you to Costa Rica's finest regions. The lots happen to sit in an area with unspoiled beauty and natural charm, which exists in the southern Pacific region of Costa Rica. This property is enveloped by magnificent sites including splendid waterfalls and whales during the months of July, November, and December to March. Experience world-class scuba diving at the Cano Islands and meet different aquatic species the place has to offer. Also, a horseback riding has you exploring the exotic rainforest in the mountains where birds and monkeys entertain your eyes or take a walk towards the wild beach of the Ballena National Park for a whale ride experience.
