Property Description

Casa de la Cascada is a turn-key luxury home in a well-developed neighborhood near Dominical, Costa Rica. With good privacy but not being too remote, this four-year-old home will make a great rental property or a comfortable retirement home, or of course, both. It has a spectacular 180-degree view toward the Pacific with a wide-open valley view and a peek at the Pacific Ocean in the center. The home, perched at 700 feet of altitude, has a world-class waterfall within a five-minute walk and a permanent easement to use the walking path. The grounds are meticulously maintained, the yard is full of fruit trees and flowers, and the home is move-in-ready. It is just 10 minutes from the beach at Dominical, 15 minutes from the Tinamastes market where you get the very best organic fruits and vegetables, and 30 minutes from San Isidro which is a full-service town with banks, hardware stores, medical and dental facilities, and even a new Walmart (oh no!).
