Property Description

This residential complex is organized into four towers, within two separate structures that are joined by a common central plaza. The ground floor includes spacious recreation areas in the interior plaza with exuberant gardens and wooden trellises for gathering areas by the pool, which is crowned by a 12-foot waterfall. Amenities include an exercise gym, a Sauna, a Turkish Steam Bath, a Massage room, as well as a majestic lobby reception area that includes an elegant private lounge and an English Bar, which serves espresso coffee and refreshments for residents. Residences: The residences are spacious, luxurious and comfortable, finished with the finest domestic and imported materials. There are one, two and three bedroom apartments available. Some of them also include a TV room/Den, others include service quarters. You can also enjoy either mountain or pool views from the open balconies.
