Property Description

Welcome to Alma de la Selva, (Soul of the Forest). Immerse yourself in the rainforest here. Invite her to soothe and nourish your soul. Alma de la Selva is in the UNESCO Savegre Biosphere Reserve, a world-class abundance of biodiversity, that still allows for economic land use and development. Here at Alma de la Selva, we care for and protect the land, the wildlife, and the trees. The land gives back, offering a secluded, peaceful lifestyle that is complete with adventures, perpetual beauty, and a little magic at times. The main entrance gate, accessible via a scenic and quiet public road, opens to a tree-lined driveway paved by soft green ground cover. Leading through the rainforest, the drive opens to vistas of the serene blue Pacific Ocean, the Savegre River Valley, and the lushly-forested surrounding mountains. Continuing on, the road leads through pastures dotted with cattle and flowering trees, before arriving at the Savegre River, where a stone staircase leads down to cerulean blue swimming holes.
