Property Description

Welcome to the unique luxurious Las Catalinas development, offering a south European vibe on the lush beaches of Costa Rica. Wraparound balconies Ocean view from every room Beachfront location Large pool patio and courtyard Two large master suites Casa de Tom, at 15 Paseo del Mar, is one of the most iconic and beautiful homes in Las Catalinas. Constructed by town founder Tom Claugus, the home was one of the first built in Las Catalinas. This beachfront masterpiece rests perfectly in the center of town. It has stunning ocean and beach views from every room, as well as from the large pool and terrace, which provide a private space from which to enjoy the sunset. The wraparound balconies off each floor are lined with hammocks and rocking chairs, at the same level as the monkeys relaxing in the trees on the beach.
