Property Description

This popular hotel, at the gateway of Tamarindo, now has a total of 22 newly constructed units bringing the current total to 51, with a mixture of rooms, suites, and villas. It also has the ability to expand by well over 50 additional units, with the majority of the units having direct ocean views. This hotel boasts a pool with ocean views, restaurant and bar, gymnasium, as well as commercial rental units and ample space for parking. If desired, an approved casino license is also available separately. In summary, this property is a well-established hotel with a significant amount of space to expand and grow with endless possibilities, steps away from the beach, right at the gateway to one of the most popular tourist hubs of Costa Rica. It truly is a rare find and opportunity.
