Property Description

Casa Serena is a unique artist home with the perfect design for entertaining. The first level features one bedroom and two bathrooms, an open living concept with stunning high ceilings lined with locally harvested teak, tons of covered space with dining table, hammocks, lounge chairs and a walk-up bar. On the second level there are two master suites with their own private baths. One suite has a sitting room and that could be used as an extra bedroom and the other Master Suite has its own balcony overlooking the gardens, with high ceilings. The home is surrounded by lush tropical gardens and is located just 3 minutes on a paved road to Carrillo beach. The property includes adequate land behind the main structure that could be developed for cabinas. All furnishing including a washing machine are included with the sale.
