Property Description

This home has been meticulously remodeled and upgraded and each bedroom has its own bath and air conditioner. Located in a gated beach front community, and titled to the 50 meter zone, this luxurious home is literally across the street from the beach and a short walk to the lovely golf. The relaxing private swimming pool is nestled among the manicured tropical gardens that surround the home. The large living room and family room open to the modern kitchen that is equipped with state of the art appliances. The three guest bedrooms are conveniently located for privacy and can be used for office space or, in this case, as a personal gym as well. The large Master Bedroom opens to the gardens and includes a sizeable office space as well. The owner installed 22 solar panels that provide the power for the house, including the air conditioning and swimming pool, and, with an arrangement with the national power company that collects the power, this home's monthly bill is only around $15.
