Property Description

Playa Arco is an extraordinary opportunity on the South Pacific Coast. It is set on 57.9 acres rising from sea level to 300 feet running parallel to the new coast highway for 850 meters and nearly the same distance on the pacific fronting the Ballena National Marine Park. Views extend from the Osa Peninsula to Manuel Antonio and include rivers, sandbars, offshore rocks and vast expanses of beach. The property has mixed zoning for commercial/residential, and green area for protection., Playa Arco is the ideal setting for a luxury eco-residential enclave. Sitting high on a cliff, the lush verdant acreage juts into the ocean. Playa Arco is a tropical haven for active adventurers. There are endless exploring opportunities on groomed jungle trails, hidden waterfalls, 300 species of birds, and profusions of tropical plants and animals, including howler and white-faced monkeys. For seafarers, Playa Arco nearly 1 km of coastline, with a secluded beach, sea caverns, scuba diving, whale watching and sportfishing.
