Property Description

Las Quintas de Miravalles is a large property of 12 acres, featuring immaculately maintained stair-step building sites, and breathtaking panoramic valley views. The property is situated at 1,000 meters in altitude, which offers a near perfect cool climate. Las Quintas features a small 2-bedroom cabin with funky internal appointments, such as a stone shower. The property is bordered by a year-round creek. The upper portion is adjacent to a well-maintained public road where water and electric services are readily available. The home is located in the barrio of Miravalles, just above that of Quebradas, two of the most popular for expats due to their quaint and peaceful nature, beautiful rivers, nature reserve with hiking trails, and convenient proximity to the city of San Isidro de EL General. The home is only 10 minutes from downtown San Isidro and about 1 hour from the beach at Playa Dominical.
