Property Description

This Sustainable High-tech 4BR home is the definition of eco-luxury. There wasn't a detail left amiss during the design and build. There were years of careful thought about the impact, health, ease of use, low energy footprint, and sustainability. The highest-rated energy-saving products were installed to make your dream life in tune with forward-thinking standards.- Haiku fans that smartly turn on-off with your movement as you ease in and out of spaces.-Roof top windows force rising hot air out of the home as the lovely tropical breezes waft through the home with cooler air.-Solar and battery systems to keep the home sustainable, and, with a low footprint. Therefore, this smart control system switches electricity to battery backup during power outages in 17 milliseconds!-Pex tubing for water lines to keep your family safe from off-gassing from simple PVC pipes and corrosion from copper and iron pipes.
